

HUDSON FORGE DINING

Hudson Forge Dining is an exciting collection of wood and metal designs that will look great for years to come. With color options for both the wood and metal finishes, you can truly customize your dining set to achieve all your décor goals. The metal frames offer durability, while the overall style helps achieve a residential look.

These dining sets are perfect for areas with less space; or group them together for a quaint café setting. Each chair style is available with a padded seat with a vinyl cover.
